guidance

Look it up! • Write it down! • Cut it out! • Memorize it!

Which way?
God has given us many directions on how to live through the insight of His word. If we order our lives according to what we know to be true from His word. He will direct us in the areas we are unsure of. It all comes down to trust. Believing God our Father to guide us into what He knows is best.

forgiveness

It happens. Everyday we say, think and do things that disappoint God. A cloud of guilt obscures our sense of His presence. Our relationship with Him isn't broken but it sure puts a strain on our fellowship. Admitting to God what we've done wrong and seeking forgiveness restores our fellowship and brings cleansing. What a comfort to have a Father who is so willing to forgive.

prayer

Relationships require communication and your relationship with God is no different. Prayer is the communication of whatever is on our hearts to God's Father heart. We come to Him expecting His response to our prayers because of our attachment to Jesus. This is what it means to approach God in Jesus' name. He answers in the way that brings the greatest joy.

Temptations. The opportunities and invitations to do wrong are sometimes overwhelming. God is there even at the moment of temptation and He's promised to provide an escape route. We've got to look for the escape and pass up the opportunity to fulfill a need in a way that displeases Him. God will give us the strength to do what is right as we seek His way out.
